MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Summer Interne Employees from the

[REDACTED]

REFERENCE : [REDACTED] letter to DCI
dtd 16 December 1958, same subject.
Executive Registry 10-9811

1. This memorandum contains information about [REDACTED]
and [REDACTED] who were nominated by [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] to be summer employees in CIA.

2. [REDACTED] entered on duty 2 June 1959 under the auspices of the JOT Program with Top Secret clearance. Although Chief/Medical Staff disapproved him for the JOT Program, he was accepted as a summer interne.

3. [REDACTED] attended the first two weeks of the Intelligence Orientation Course. He was then assigned to Chief/Geography Division/ORR under whose direction he will work on Project No. 62.1742.
This problem centers around the Kurds of Iraq, but also concerns those living in Turkey, Syria, Iran, and the USSR. He will not be exposed to material of high sensitivity. It is felt that [REDACTED] will do useful work and that this brief tour will give him some understanding of the intelligence process.

4. [REDACTED] was found by the Security Office to be not eligible at this time. This matter has been explained to [REDACTED] by the Inspector General.
